This week we have been learning about:

Our class Mr Men characters!

Last week we voted for our favourite Mr Men or Little Miss characters (Apollo voted for Mr Strong and Discovery voted for Mr Bump), so this week we have been looking at these characters and their stories in more detail. We've thought about why the character has that specific name and used pictures to re-tell their story.

We've also been practicing our scissor skills by cutting up shapes and had fun decorating biscuits to look like funny faces.

Home learning: Can your child make a new story about the class character and tell it to you?

Thought for the week.

Miss Graham has now left on her maternity leave. We would like to thank her for her help and hard work in our reception classes and look forward to seeing next year with her new baby.

Phonics

This week we learnt the sounds : g, o, c, k
Sounds learnt so far: s, a, t, p, i, n, m, d, n, m, d

Can you help? As you may have noticed we're trying to develop our outside area and would love any of the following bits;

- Junk modelling – please keep your boxes, bottles and material coming in!
- Hats/ Belts/ 2nd hand clothing suitable for dressing up.
- Balls (if you have older children who don't use basket or footballs anymore).
- Off cuts of wood – we're hoping to add a wood working area so will need lots of small off cuts for little hands to be able to work with).

Please remember...

- Afternoon snacks to be fruit/ vegetables or cheese!
- P.E is every Tuesday.
- Harvest festival letters went home yesterday – please see your child's teacher if you have not got it.

Star of the week goes to...

Anna – Discovery Class

For trying hard with her reading and for having a great week!

Bayley – Apollo Class

For being wonderful and trying to make everyone happy!

Congratulations!
