

Seedlings Newsletter

Friday 24th May 2019

The children have thoroughly enjoyed our inquiry this term into animals, their homes and how to protect them.

The children had a great time on Thursday looking at and finding out about the unusual animals. They especially liked the ____ Next term our inquiry will be: "There are people who help us all around". With this as our starting point we will be looking at a variety of different occupations, as well as inviting people who help us into nursery to speak to us about their jobs.

We will also be looking at the local area, learning about maps as for those moving to big school visiting their new classes and teachers.

If you happen to have or know someone that would like to come into nursery to talk about their job with us we would really appreciate. Please speak to Mrs L or email us on Seedlings@langleyparkprimaryacademy.org.uk

Home Learning:

We now have some new cosy furniture in our reading corner. We would like to continue to make this inviting for the children. Therefore we would like to share images of the children reading stories in unusual places, it might be on a bike or even sitting on a horse! If you could please send in a photo of your child reading their favourite story in a unusual place we would really appreciate it.

You're never too old,
too wacky, too wild,
to pick up a book
and read to a child.
